RE: Kettle Corn Crunchies and Cool Ranch Toasted Corn – NSLP Crediting Update

DATE: 03/15/11

Please be advised of the following crediting information regarding the use of Cool Ranch Toasted Corn (1 oz.) and Kettle Corn Crunchies (1oz.) in the USDA School Meal Programs:

- In the Traditional Food-Based Meal Patterns – These products can be credited as an after-school snack as 1.0 serving of the Grains/Breads component.
- In the Enhanced Food-Based Meal Patterns – These products can be credited as a snack item (dessert) at a meal, and/or as an after-school snack as 1.0 serving of the Grains/Breads component.
- These whole grain snacks are made using the whole kernel corn and are credited based on the Food Buying Guide for Child Nutrition Programs – Exhibit A. Group H. Cereal Grains where one serving of dry cereal grains must weigh a minimum of 25 grams (1.0 ounce = 28.35 grams).

All previous product formulation statements for these toasted corn snacks are obsolete.
